

What the Hell is This?

It is a holiday onion kit, lacking only the onion. While I have mailed onions in the past, it seemed far easier if you simply supply one at your end.

The ideal is a large white onion. A red would be an amusing alternative. In a pinch, a yellow will do.

To assemble the kit, wrap the gold tissue paper in the bag around the onion, place back in bag, fold top of bag once or twice, and you're done!

Happy Holidays! You Now Have a Holiday Onion Kit!

Unwrap and enjoy, or gift the kit to someone else and blow their minds.
